

1. Heard counsel for the parties. Having regard to the nature of offence and nominal bail amount imposed by this court, condition requiring applicant to attend concerned police station once in a week needs no modification at this stage. Hence, the application is rejected.